Mission and Vision:	The mission of Hawaii Academy of Arts and Science is to educate, enrich and inspire the whole student to thrive by understanding the past, navigating the present and preparing for the future. (Revision April 2, 2014, approved by Governing Board April 10, 2014, facilitated by V. Bernhardt, PhD) Hawaii Academy of Arts and Science's vision is of a community of learners in which every person is respectfully supported. By working together every

	member becomes a capable, compassionate, courageous creator of a better world. The purpose is to educate and enrich the whole person and prepare the individual to respond to his or her own needs and those of a global community.
Essential Term #1:	HAASPCS recognizes the importance of students being able to communicate effectively. HAASPCS will assess student growth through a variety of teaching and learning styles. Students will be invited to communicate their knowledge and measure their progress through varied modalities and experiences. Students K-12 will demonstrate proficiency of various learning objectives through student exhibits and performance-based assessments, i.e, recitations, theater and musical performances, videos and/or recordings, contests and competitions, art shows, performance fairs, robotics and science fairs, classroom projects, as examples.
Essential Term #2:	The understanding that it is essential for human beings to work together is an integral part of the HAASPCS philosophy. HAASPCS programs build an increased sense of belonging for all stakeholders and promote a healthy community. HAASPCS provides multiple support services to ensure that every student is able to be successful in learning. In this small learning community, there is always a caring adult available. Students K-12 will be involved in a service learning/community service/stewardship project that responds to an identified community need. Comprehensive Student Support Services promote a culture of safety, respect and well-being. The student behavior and discipline plan is fair and consistent as stated in the Student/Parent/Faculty Handbooks.
Essential Term #3:	HAASPCS responds directly to the needs of students through a personalized and rigorous course of study. Implementation of this essential term is evident by HAASPCS' offering of virtual education, College and Career preparatory education programs (such as AP courses and Running Start), a variety of elective/enrichment courses (such as Garden to Grinds), and an integrated arts and science curriculum.
